Mark Morek is the Managing Director of Point Search Partners, a premier search firm committed to performance, quality and superior results. Clients and candidates alike cite Mark's passion for execution, industry knowledge, and extensive professional network as the foundation of his success and multiple long-term relationships.

Mark's search strategy combines presenting his clients with industry-specific solutions as well as innovative ideas expanding on applicable technical and cultural experiences. His practice focuses on mid and senior roles throughout the organization, a majority of which have focused on Marketing / Sales, Engineering, Operations, Human Resources and Continuous Improvement roles. Mark works directly with executives to recruit top talent across most functional roles.

Clients regularly enlist Mark to conduct multiple assignments and rely on his experience and guidance. Clients have leveraged Mark's expertise and market knowledge to analyze recruiting strategies, develop talent acquisition pipelines, and recruit seasoned experts.

Mark's clients and placements are the greatest testament to his quality and success. Throughout his career, more than 85 percent of his engagements have come from repeat or referral business and he has led the firm in client satisfaction and quality of work.

Mark has spent almost a decade in the search profession. Prior, Mark was a Senior Officer in the military, recruiting top talent for the Army Officer Program. He began his career as an Aviation Officer and has accumulated almost 1,000 flight hours in a variety of rotary wing aircraft throughout his career. Mark is a graduate of West Point with a Bachelor in Engineering and has a Master's of Science in Human Resources.
